vs.	)
	)	JUDGE MATTICE
CURTIS L. JACKSON	)

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

CURTIS L. JACKSON (“Supervised Releasee”) appeared for an initial appearance before the undersigned on October 29, 2013, in accordance with Rule 32.1 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure on the Petition for Warrant for Offender Under Supervision (“Petition”). Those present for the hearing included:

- (1) An Assistant United States Attorney for the Government.
- (2) The Supervised Releasee.
- (3) Attorney Anthony Martinez for defendant.

After being sworn in due form of law, the Supervised Releasee was informed or reminded of his privilege against self-incrimination accorded him under the 5th Amendment to the United States Constitution.

It was determined the Supervised Releasee wished to be represented by an attorney and he qualified for the appointment of an attorney to represent him at government expense. Federal Defender Services of Eastern Tennessee, Inc. was APPOINTED to represent the defendant. It was determined the Supervised Releasee had been provided with a copy of the Petition and the Warrant for Arrest and had the opportunity of reviewing those documents with his attorney. It was also determined he was capable of being able to read and understand the copy of the aforesaid documents he had been provided.

The Supervised Releasee waived his right to a preliminary hearing but requested a detention hearing.

The Government relied on the sworn affidavit of USPO Doug Corn and moved that the Supervised Releasee be detained pending the revocation hearing.

Findings

- (1) Based upon USPO Corn’s testimony and Supervised Releasee’s waiver of preliminary hearing, the undersigned finds there is probable cause to believe

Supervised Releasee has committed violations of his conditions of supervised release as alleged or set forth in the Petition.

(2) However, the Court found that if released on bail the Supervised Releasee would not flee and would not pose a danger to the community. Therefore, the Court will allow the defendant be released on a $30,000.00 bond.

Conclusions

It is ORDERED:

(1) The Supervised Releasee be released on a $30,000.00 bond as set out in a separate Appearance Bond and Conditions of Release.

(2) The Supervised Releasee will next appear for a revocation hearing before Judge Mattice on Tuesday, November 12, 2013, at 2:00 pm.
